1. Rules of debate at meetings

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman.
- j Subject to standing order 1(k) below, only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.

- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate of the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
- o Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except:
 - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
 - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke;
 - iii. to make a point of order;
 - iv. to give a personal explanation that relates directly to new information concerning the member that was introduced during the debate, in which case they shall with the chair's consent offer their explanation after all other members who wish to do so have spoken, or
 - v. in exercise of a right of reply as the mover of the motion before a vote.
- p During the debate of a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he is concerned by.
- q A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his decision shall be final.
- r When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
 - i. to amend the motion;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business;
 - iii. to adjourn the debate;
 - iv. to put the motion to a vote;
 - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;
 - vi. to refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration;
 - vii. to exclude the public and press;
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
 - ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory requirements.
- s Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.
- t Excluding motions moved understanding order 1(r) above, the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed (3) minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.

2. Disorderly conduct at meetings

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) above is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

3. Meetings generally

- a A legal deed shall not be executed on behalf of the council unless authorised by a resolution.

- b Subject to standing order 22(a) above, any two councillors may sign, on behalf of the council, any deed required by law and the Proper Officer shall witness their signatures.

23. Restrictions on councillor activities

- a Unless authorised by a resolution, no councillor shall:
 - i inspect any land and/or premises which the council has a right or duty to inspect; or
 - ii issue orders, instructions or directions.

24. Standing orders generally

- a All or part of a standing order, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, may be suspended by resolution in relation to the consideration of an item on the agenda for a meeting.
- b A motion to add to or vary or revoke one or more of the council's standing orders, except one that incorporates mandatory statutory requirements, shall be proposed by a special motion, the written notice by at least (4) councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with standing order 9 above.
- c The Proper Officer shall provide a copy of the council's standing orders to a councillor as soon as possible after he has delivered his acceptance of office form.
- d The decision of the chairman of a meeting as to the application of standing orders at the meeting shall be final.

25. Proper Officer's Rulings

- a. Where an elected member is concerned that a decision of council, or a decision of a committee, or a decision delegated to an officer of the council
 - i. Has not been properly made in accordance with the council's constitution or standing orders, or
 - ii. Has been made without all the evidence required to make a decision, or

iii. Is unreasonable to such an extent that no reasonable person, acting reasonably, could have made it, the elected member may ask for the Proper Officer's Ruling as to whether the decision was well made and within the council's powers and the scope of any relevant delegations.

- b. A member stating their concerns must state which of the three grounds they are raising their concern under, and the reasons why they have cause for concern.
- c. The Proper Officer shall provide the elected member, within five working days, a ruling laying out a response to the members concerns. Where the member's concerns are upheld, or there is otherwise cause for concern, the ruling shall lay out the steps taken to prevent a recurrence of the concern.
- d. Where an elected member is concerned that a decision of council, or a decision of a committee, or a decision delegated to an officer of the council, which has not yet been made, either
 - i. May not be properly made in accordance with the council's constitution or standing orders, or
 - ii. May be made without all the evidence required to make a decision the elected member may ask for the Proper Officer's Ruling as to whether the proposed decision is within the council's powers and the scope of any relevant delegations, and sufficiently evidenced.

- e. Where a member requests a ruling under para. d, above, the clerk shall report the ruling to the meeting in question before debate commences on the topic in question, in addition to publishing their ruling, as soon as is practicable, on the council website.
- f. Where a member objects to the clerk's ruling in response to their concerns under either para a or para d (above) they may make one three minute speech on the topic to the next available council meeting; the clerk in turn will explain their ruling, at which point council will proceed to the next business without further debate.

- g. All concerns expressed, and the rulings arising from them, except those concerned with confidential business of council or its committees, shall be published, including the name of the member expressing the concern.
- h. A member may not express a concern regarding either staffing matters, decisions of the Town Clerk as the head of the council's staff, or decisions, such as those concerning Freedom of Information requests, where other routes of internal review are available.
